Exhibit A

Elizabeth Mary Young Interest Forfeiture and Limited Use Right Agreement

Attached to and incorporated into the Non-Judicial Settlement Agreement dated _____, 2026

Flanagan Pine Branch Trust
Property: 321 Phillips Way, Ellsworth, ME 04605 (Branch Lake)

I. Parties

This Exhibit is entered into by:

Elizabeth Mary Young ("Elizabeth Mary Young")
Edward Joseph Young IV ("Edward Joseph Young IV"), son of Elizabeth Mary Young John Nelson Young ("John Nelson Young"), son of Elizabeth Mary Young

and

John Michael Flanagan, Successor Co-Trustee
Christopher Joseph Flanagan, Successor Co-Trustee

and acknowledged by all other parties to the Non-Judicial Settlement Agreement.

Elizabeth Mary Young signs this Agreement before the beneficiary vote to confirm her acceptance of the special one-week arrangement. Her pre-election signature does not make her forfeiture effective before the vote and does not remove her right to vote in that election. The forfeiture and redistribution described below become effective only on the effective date of the Non-Judicial Settlement Agreement. Edward Joseph Young IV and John Nelson Young may sign separately. The elected Successor Co-Trustees shall countersign after accepting their appointments.

II. Background

Elizabeth Mary Young is one of the five (5) children of Dorothy E. Flanagan, the Settlor of the Flanagan Pine Branch Trust. Elizabeth Mary Young was named as an initial Co-Trustee (Article 10.1) and is a beneficiary of the Trust.

Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young no longer wish to participate in the shared expenses of the Camp Property as outlined in Article 5.3 of the Trust Agreement.

For purposes of this Exhibit, any reference to Elizabeth Mary Young's immediate heirs means Edward Joseph Young IV and John Nelson Young only. No broader class of heirs, descendants, spouses, successors, estates, assigns, or future generations is granted any beneficial interest, use right, voting right, purchase right, sale-proceeds claim, or other right under this Exhibit.

III. Forfeiture of Beneficial Interest

Elizabeth Mary Young hereby voluntarily forfeits her entire beneficial interest in the Flanagan Pine Branch Trust, effective on the date of the Non-Judicial Settlement Agreement.

This forfeiture includes:

a. All rights to income distributions under Article IV.

b. All beneficial interest in the Camp Property and any other Trust assets.

c. All voting rights as a beneficiary, including the right to vote on the sale of the Camp Property (Article 5.5), the nomination or removal of Trustees (Article 10.2), and the approval of expenses and assessments (Article 5.3).

d. All current and future claims to sale proceeds, equity, or distributions should the Property be sold in whole or in part.

e. All rights to purchase the Camp Property or any subdivided part thereof under Article 5.6.

Edward Joseph Young IV and John Nelson Young likewise forfeit any current or future beneficial interest they may hold or claim in the Trust through Elizabeth Mary Young.

IV. Release from Financial Obligations

In consideration for the forfeiture described above, Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young are permanently released from all financial obligations under the Trust, including:

a. Assessments for utilities, real property taxes, insurance, repairs, maintenance, and capital improvements under Article 5.3.

b. Any outstanding or unpaid assessments as of the date of this Agreement.

c. Any future assessments of any kind.

V. Limited Use Right

In further consideration for the forfeiture, Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson

Young are granted the following limited use right:

a. One (1) aggregate week of summer use of the Camp Property per calendar year, only while the Camp Property is owned by the Trust and only during the term of this limited use right.

b. "Aggregate" means one (1) total week shared among Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young, not one (1) week each.

c. "Summer" shall mean the period from Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day weekend of each calendar year.

d. For purposes of this Exhibit, one week means seven (7) consecutive days. Weeks typically begin on Sunday and end on Saturday. An alternate seven-day period, including a different start day, may be requested. The Trustees will accommodate alternate start and end dates if the requested dates are available and do not conflict with or materially disrupt the overall annual schedule or adjacent scheduled weeks.

e. Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, or John Nelson Young may participate in the annual scheduling process or submit requested dates to the Trustees during the preliminary scheduling period in the last week of January. Participation may be in person, by telephone, by video conference, or by another method approved by the Trustees. The annual schedule shall be finalized by the end of March each year.

f. The annual scheduling process shall not be delayed, reopened, or held open because Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, or John Nelson Young fails to attend, participate, respond, or submit requested dates.

g. If Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young do not participate in the annual scheduling process or do not submit requested dates before the end of the preliminary scheduling period in the last week of January, they may still request their week later in the calendar year without penalty. Before the annual schedule is finalized, their choices will be limited to weeks not already requested. After the annual schedule is finalized at the end of March, their choices will be limited to weeks not already scheduled. Any late request remains subject to availability and coordination with the overall schedule. An unused week does not carry over to a later year, and no make-up week is owed.

h. The Trustees will make every reasonable effort to accommodate the specific dates requested, in coordination with the schedules of all active beneficiaries, and to consider the equitable distribution of prime vacation weeks among users over time.

i. Final scheduling is subject to the sole discretion of the Trustees.

j. This limited use right is personal to Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young. It may not be assigned, transferred, sold, leased, conveyed, inherited, or exercised by any other person.

k. This limited use right does not create any ownership interest, beneficial interest, leasehold interest, easement, lien, right of first refusal, voting right, or right against any purchaser or future owner of the Camp

l. Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young may not, under any circumstances, rent, lease, sublease, license, advertise, assign, exchange, barter, or accept money, compensation, or other consideration for use of any part of their assigned week, whether or not any of them is present. They may not grant or transfer the assigned week to another person. At least one of Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, or John Nelson Young must be present during any permitted use of the assigned week by guests.

m. During their week of use, Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young shall treat the Camp Property with reasonable care and leave it in the condition in which it was found.

n. Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, John Nelson Young, and each of their guests enter and use the Camp Property entirely at their own risk and assume all risks of accident, bodily injury, illness, death, and loss of or damage to personal property arising from or related to their presence at or use of the Camp Property, including the land, buildings, docks, lake, shoreline, watercraft, equipment, and other facilities or activities. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Flanagan Pine Branch Trust, its Trustees, beneficiaries, agents, and representatives shall not be liable for any such accident, injury, illness, death, loss, or damage. Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young are responsible for informing their guests of these conditions and for the conduct and supervision of their guests and any minors in their party. Nothing in this paragraph waives liability that applicable law does not permit to be waived.

o. Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, and John Nelson Young will not be charged any service fee or use fee for exercising this limited use right. This fee waiver does not apply to loss or damage beyond ordinary wear and tear caused by any of them or their guests. They shall be responsible for the reasonable cost of repairing or replacing any Trust property, amenity, or equipment damaged by any of them or their guests.

VI. Non-Perpetual Nature and Automatic Termination of Limited Use Right

THIS LIMITED USE RIGHT IS NOT PERPETUAL. It exists only while the Flanagan Pine Branch Trust remains in existence and owns the Camp Property. If the Trust is dissolved, terminated, or otherwise ceases to exist, or if the Trust sells, transfers, conveys, or otherwise ceases to own the Camp Property, the limited use right automatically and permanently terminates immediately. No compensation, replacement property, substitute week, carryover week, or right against any purchaser or future owner shall be owed.

The limited use right shall also terminate:

a. As to Elizabeth Mary Young, upon her death.

b. As to Edward Joseph Young IV, upon his death.

c. As to John Nelson Young, upon his death.

d. In all events, upon the death of both Edward Joseph Young IV and John Nelson Young. Upon the death of both Edward Joseph Young IV and John Nelson Young, no person shall hold or inherit any remaining use right under this Exhibit.

The limited use right does not pass to the heirs, spouses, descendants, estates, trusts, creditors, assigns, or successors of Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, or John Nelson Young.

VII. Redistribution of Forfeited Interest

The beneficial interest formerly held by Elizabeth Mary Young is redistributed equally to the four (4) remaining branches:

Mary Jean Foss branch (Jennifer Anne Yommer and Martha Jane Foss): 5%
John Michael Flanagan: 5%
Jane Elizabeth Birckhead branch (Joseph Morgan Birckhead, after Diana Elizabeth Birckhead forfeiture): 5%
Christopher Joseph Flanagan: 5%

This redistribution results in each of the four remaining branches holding a 25% beneficial interest.

VIII. Re-Entry Provision

If Elizabeth Mary Young, Edward Joseph Young IV, or John Nelson Young desire to return to being active beneficiaries of the Trust in the future, the then-active beneficiaries shall vote on the terms and conditions of such re-entry, which may include repayment or catch-up payment of expenses, taxes, insurance, maintenance, improvements, or other Trust costs previously paid by the active beneficiaries.

a. Approval shall require a majority vote of the active beneficiaries at that time.

b. The terms of re-entry, including the percentage of beneficial interest to be restored, shall be determined by the active beneficiaries at the time of the vote.

c. Re-entry does not automatically restore the original 20% interest.
